Girl Scout Bronze Award

Girl Scouts of Eastern South Carolina does not approve Girl Scout Bronze Award projects. The Troop Leader approves the project.

A Girl Scout Bronze Award Final Report needs to be submitted (pages 15-16 in the Girl Scout Bronze Award Guidelines for Girl Scout Juniors packet) before the Girl Scout Bronze Award pin is purchased. A Girl Scout Bronze Award Final Report must be submitted for each girl who completed the award. Make sure to include a copy of the completed Project Idea Chart and Planning Chart.

Girl Scout Bronze Award Final Reports must be submitted no later than March 20, 2015 if a girl plans to register to be recognized at 2015 GSESC Girl Recognition Ceremony on May 17, 2015. Registration information for the GSESC Girl Recognition Ceremony can be found on our website, www.girlscoutsesc.org.

The Girl Scout Bronze Award Final Report must be submitted no later than September 30 of final year as a Girl Scout Junior.

- Must complete a Girl Scout Junior Journey before starting.
    - aMuse - It's Your Story-Tell It
    - Get Moving! - It's Your Planet-Love It
    - Agent of Change - It's Your World-Change It
- Suggested minimum 20 hours (per girl) to finish award.
    - Includes time spent on Steps 2-7
- Team Experience
    - Can be Troop or other girls her age including non-Girl Scouts
    - Team building is important
- Should be a project in the community
    - Encourage girls to think critically
    - Explore and discuss as a group
- Encourage girls to talk with/research outside sources
    - Visit community meetings or events
- Girls should be able to answer three questions before starting
    - Why does this idea matter?
    - Who will this help?
    - What can we do to make a difference? Is that realistic?
- Girls should think about how to share their project with the worldwide community