Girl Scout Gold Award Guidelines for
Girl Scout Seniors and Girl Scout Ambassadors

A minimum of 80 hours is SUGGESTED to complete STEPS 1 – 7

A Completed Girl Scout Gold Award Final Report must be received and approved no later than March 6, 2015 if you plan to register to be recognized at the 2015 GSESC Girl Recognition Ceremony on May 17, 2015.

STEP 3 - Girls must work individually, but are expected to have support

All steps must be completed, Girl Scout Gold Award Final Report submitted and approved by September 30 of a girl's last year as a Girl Scout Ambassador

The prerequisite and STEPS 1-7 must be completed in order.

STEP 7
Educate and Inspire
*Submit Final Report for review by the GSESC Highest Awards Committee
*Share your project beyond your community

STEP 6 Take Action
*Take the lead and carry out your plan

STEP 5
Present Your Plan And Get Feedback
*Submit a Gold Award Project Proposal for review by the GSESC Highest Awards Committee

STEP 3
Get Help
*Build a team and recruit a Project Advisor

STEP 4
Create A Plan
*Look to achieve a sustainable and measurable impact

STEP 1
Choose An Issue
*Must be an issue in the community, outside of Girl Scouting

STEP 2
Investigate
*Use a variety of sources
*Identify national and/or global links

PREREQUSITE

Complete two Girl Scout Senior or Girl Scout Ambassador Journeys
*Any combination of two Journeys

OR

Have earned the Girl Scout Silver Award and complete one Journey
*Any Girl Scout Ambassador or Girl Scout Senior Journey