Exploring the Brownie Girl Book It's Your World-Change It!

Using the girl book, answer the question assigned to your table group. You will present your findings to the larger group.

1. What's the theme girls are invited to explore on this leadership journey?	Pages 4-5	An adventure in a garden with new friends!
2. What's the message to girls about earning awards?	Pages 48-49 Pages 52, 65, 70 Page 71	It's a mystery. Solve it. As you go, you'll uncover the meaning Record for themselves the name of each of the three key/awards and the meaning When I use all three, I "unlock" leadership"
3. Who will girls "meet" on the journey? (fictional, historic, or real-life)	Page 7 Page 40 Page 41 Page 43	Fictional Brownie friends, ELF & Grandma ELF "Katie" Genevieve Wangari Maathai
4. What's one of the steps girls will do to Take Action to change the world?	Page 66 Pages 68-69	Brainstorm Basic plan and steps (Note: adult book has more – this just captures it with girls.)
5. How is Girl Scout History, tradition, or ceremony incorporated into the journey?	Inside Cover Page 45 Page 72	It's Girl Scouts – and You belong! Days to celebrate You and 800,000 Brownies – together Juliette Gordon Low
6. What is one opportunity girls have to imagine or create?	Page 46 Page 35 Page 46 Page 51	Haiku How can the story end!? Imagine what you'll find on the quest! Create a family star
7. Where in the book might you find an activity (shown or suggested) that girls can do "just for fun"?	Page 16 Pages 28-29 Page 35 Page 48 Pages 56-57 Page 67	Friendship Game "Fun with Haiku" "It's Your Turn" Puzzling over Keys Recipes Songs
8. Where in the girl book can you find an example of actions or characters that illustrate diversity?	Main characters exemplify diversity	