Girl Scout Positioning Statement:
Girl Scouts is the world's preeminent organization dedicated solely to girls—all girls—where, in an accepting and nurturing environment, girls build character and skills for success in the real world. In partnership with committed adults, girls develop qualities that will serve them all their lives—like strong values, social conscience, and conviction about their own potential self-worth.

In Girl Scouts, girls discover the fun, friendship, and power of girls together. Through the many enriching experiences provided by the Girl Scouts, they can grow courageous and strong.

Nominations should be received by
December 7, 2009

Recipients will be announced at the
Mary Dean Brewer Women of Distinction Gala
Friday,
March 12, 2010

Mary Dean Brewer Women of Distinction Awards

Named for our past president, Mary Dean Brewer, for women who have made significant contributions in their professions and communities. The Women of Distinction Awards recognize the traditions - past and present - of leadership of outstanding women. The Lifetime Achievement Award recognizes one woman who has shown a significant contribution in making the world around her a better place.
