

At the Children's Museum of the Lowcountry (CML), Girl Scouts can earn a recognition, get a really cool patch or just have fun!

Check out all the different ways your troop can explore CML:

Recognition Workshops

Day and evening recognition workshops are available for Girl Scout Daisies, Brownies and Juniors – see Detours, the 2009 – 2010 GSESC resource guide – make one of your troop meetings a CML Recognition Workshop!

Custom Troop Trips

Whether you want to lead your troop on a self-guided recognition workshop, have a private instructor-led recognition workshop or maybe you just want to plan a fun trip for your girls, give us a call and we will make it happen!

Individual Trips

Looking to add a little flair to your uniform, come to CML and get our really cool patch anytime! Simply ask the Front Desk for the Girl Scout Scavenger Hunt and away you go! Once you have found all the items in the hunt, return to the front desk to claim your patch! Patches are $2 with CML Admission or CML Membership Card. Have a bunch of friends who want our patch? Give us a call for special group rates!

Girl Scout Cadette, Senior and Ambassador Service Opportunities

CML offers a number of volunteer opportunities and service projects for Girl Scout Cadettes, Seniors and Ambassadors – call us today if you are interested!

Please contact:

Christine Kelly

Group Fun Coordinator

843.853.8962 x224

Christine@explorecml.org

P.S.: Keep your eye out for CML's Girl Scouts Night at the Museum – we promise nothing but fun, fun and more fun!

CML is a non-profit organization, all proceeds from Girl Scout visits go toward improvements in the Museum, as well as vital community outreach efforts.

The Children's Museum of the Lowcountry
25 Ann Street Charleston, SC 29403
www.explorecml.org