EVENT CELEBRATES GOOD TASTES AND A GOOD CAUSE

Want to satisfy your sweet tooth and contribute to a good cause? Girl Scouts of Eastern South Carolina is offering just that at Death by Chocolate: A Chocolate and Champagne Affair, an annual event celebrating decadent chocolate and plenty of bubbly, as well as the opportunity to support Girl Scouts in your area. The event will be held February 11 at the Sea Mist Oceanfront Resort conference center from 7-9 p.m.

The evening will feature chefs from Horry and Georgetown counties, each creating a chocolate entrée, drink or dessert. Tastings will be available for partygoers throughout the night, and each entry will be judged on a number of delicious criteria by a panel of judges. Prizes will be awarded for the judges' favorite dishes. A silent auction will also take place and hors d'oeuvres will be available.

Tickets are $40 each or two for $75 and are available by calling 800-786-8704 or 800-868-9911. Tickets can also be purchased at Young Interiors and Flooring Center in North Myrtle Beach and Scotchman #222 on S.C. 544 near the Waffle House. All proceeds go to benefit girls in your area.

Girl Scouts is the world's preeminent organization dedicated solely to girls – all girls, everywhere – where in an accepting and nurturing environment, girls build character and skills for success in the real world. In partnership with committed adults, girls develop qualities that will serve them all their lives, like strong values, social conscience and conviction about their own potential and self-worth. Girl Scouts of Eastern South Carolina provides programs and services to more than 13,000 girls and 5,000 adults across 21 counties.
