

South Carolina Honorary Legislative Page Program

The South Carolina Honorary Legislative Page Program is an opportunity for Girl Scouts in high school to investigate how our government works. Twelve Girl Scouts from across South Carolina will be selected to attend this program. They will spend three days working as a page for the House of Representatives and Senate at the South Carolina State House in Columbia. This working experience includes meetings with Government officials, training on legislative protocol and procedure, and networking with Girl Scouts throughout South Carolina. The selected girls will be required to participate in a few conference calls during January and/or February.

*PLEASE NOTE – This event is contingent on cancellations being lifted regarding GSUSA’s overnight stays and visits to the South Carolina State House.

Who: Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors (Grades 9 -12)

When: March 8, 2021 – March 11, 2021
